

JÄRVI ACADEMY 2023

INTERNATIONAL MASTERCLASSES FOR CONDUCTORS

This year, the masterclasses for conductors will take place in Tallinn and Pärnu on 9–19 July. At the same time, Pärnu will host masterclasses for string and wind instrument players and chamber ensembles. Järvi Academy Youth Symphony Orchestra will participate. Pärnu International Music Festival will take place 12–21 July 2023.

Tutors: Paavo Järvi, Neeme Järvi, Kristjan Järvi and Leonid Grin

NB! When registering for courses, please include

- 2 YouTube links, each video 20 min long
- an edited biography for the programme
- A photo in JPG format (high resolution)

An advance payment of €80 is required upon registration. NB! In case of non-payment, the registration will not be taken into account.

NB! NEW SYSTEM FOR COURSES THIS YEAR!

Active participant

16 active participants will be selected for the courses, whose work plan will include

- 13–20 minutes of daily work with the Järvi Academy Youth Symphony Orchestra (9.–18.07.2023).
- 2 concerts in Tallinn (11.07 at 13 in Arvo Pärt Centre and at 19 in Tallinn Jaani Church) and 2 concerts in Pärnu (13.07 at 20 and 19.07 at 20 in Pärnu Concert Hall). A maximum of 8 conductors will conduct at one concert, in Pärnu 8 + 8 (those who do not conduct at the first concert will conduct at the second concert and vice versa).

Active participants are selected for the courses by Paavo Järvi. The Maestro selects the conductors on the day before the concert.

The work will take place in Tallinn and Pärnu. The participants are allowed to film all sessions.

Student

Two or three students are selected for the courses, whose work plan includes

- 13–20 minutes of work per day with the Järvi Academy Youth Symphony Orchestra (9.–18.07.2023).
- Concerts in Tallinn and Pärnu. As a rule, the students do not conduct a concert.

Passive participant

Those who receive a negative answer will be able to participate in the courses as passive applicants, whose work plan includes

- one lesson from Leonid Grin (with pianos)
- approx. 1 hour lecture (Maarit Kangron)

Accommodation

Järvi Academy does not provide accommodation. It is difficult to find accommodation in Pärnu in the summer, so please book well in advance. We recommend staying in Pärnu until the end of the festival on 21.07 to attend the EFO concerts and the closing night.
